PRESS RELEASE

No. 123/2008

Date. 20th May 2008

The Chief Minister, Peter Caruana (who is also Minister for the Finance Centre) leaves Gibraltar this morning for Geneva, where he will be hosting and speaking at the Gibraltar Finance Centre's Gibraltar Wealth Management seminar taking place there on Thursday.

The event which is one in a series of conferences on Gibraltar financial services being held in different Swiss cities this week underlines the close relationship which has been established by the Gibraltar Finance Centre and Swiss financial institutions and professionals over the past ten years. The Chief Minister addressed a similar conference in Geneva two years ago.

The Chief Minister will attend dinners hosted on the occasion of his visit by Credit Suisse and Lombard Odier Darier Hentsch.

The Chief Minister who is accompanied by Private Secretary John Reyes and Finance Centre Director, James Tipping, returns to Gibraltar on Friday.
