World Environment Day, commemorated each year on 5 June, is celebrated worldwide to promote awareness and give a human face to environmental issues.

This year the awareness day on Thursday 5th June 2008 will combine presentations from our local schools with an awareness/trade fair at the Tercentenary Sports Hall.

The event starts at 9.15am with an opening speech by the Hon. E Britto, Minister for the Environment. The Hon. C Beltran, Minister for Education will present a commemorative trophy to all participating schools.

It is envisaged that the event will end at around 12.30pm with the trade-fair remaining open until 1.00pm.
