PRESS RELEASE

No. 262/2008

Date. 30 October 2008

Her Majesty The Queen has approved that Sunday 9th November will be observed as Remembrance Sunday and the usual Gibraltar ceremony of remembrance will be held at The Cross of Sacrifice at noon.

His Excellency the Governor, HM the Queen's representative in Gibraltar, will lead the service and on his arrival, will read the Bidding. This will be followed by the observance of the Two Minutes silence, the beginning and end of which will be signalled by a saluting gun, the Last Post will be sounded, after which wreaths will be laid, and a non denominational service will be held. The ceremony will conclude with the sounding of Reveille and the Singing of the National Anthem.

Medals and decorations may be worn with civilian dress by all those entitled to do so. Relatives of the dead may also wear them.

Persons/Organisations wishing to lay wreaths are advised that wreaths may be collected from No 6 Convent Place on Monday 3rd, Tuesday 4th and Wednesday 5th November from 10.00 am until noon. The cost of the wreaths is £25.00 and cheques should be made payable to The Gibraltar Poppy Day Appeal Fund.
