Claim for Death Grant in respect of a child

1. The Claim should be submitted within six months of the death, as any delays will result in loss of the grant.
2. When claiming for a Death Grant you are required to produce the child's birth certificate, receipt of funeral expenses and death certificate.
3. The claimant should be the person who incurs the cost of the funeral.
4. A claim for a Death Grant may only be paid if either parent or the person who maintained or resided with the child is in insurable employment and satisfies the contribution conditions.
5. If any of the documents are not readily available, please do not delay in submitting your claim as this could result in loss of payment.
6. This form, when completed, must be returned without delay, to the Department of Social Security, 14 Governor's Parade, Gibraltar.

How we collect and use information

The Department of Social Security collects information for the purposes of dealing with social security benefits and other non-contributory benefits. The information we collect about you depends on the reason for your business with us, but we may use the information for any of these purposes.

We may check information about you with other information we have. We may get information about you from other people and certain other organisations. We may give information to certain other organisations, as the law allows, to:

- check the accuracy of information;
- prevent or detect crime;
- protect public funds in other ways; and
- use in research or statistics.

These other organisations include other government departments, local authorities, and private sector bodies such as banks and organisations that may lend you money. We will not give information about you to anyone outside our department unless the law allows us to.

The Department of Social Security is the data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act.
