

GIBRALTAR BUSINESS NURTURING SCHEME (GBNS)

2015/2016 GBNS APPLICATION FORM

You are expected to provide as much information as possible to enable us to assess your application. You should not, however, disclose any information which is commercial in confidence. You should also refrain from disclosing any details on any application or process which may be patentable, unless you have secured or are patent pending; please be warned that any such disclosure may invalidate any patent application you choose to make in the future.

Applications will be given a preliminary score by the GBNS Committee. Applicants achieving an average preliminary score of more than 50 will be invited to an interview with the GBNS Committee, following which scores may be adjusted and the Committee will vote on each application. Applications with an average final score of more than 60 and a majority vote from the Committee will be recommended for approval to Her Majesty's Government of Gibraltar. Please also note that each loan will be subject to the discretion of Her Majesty's Government of Gibraltar.
