

Government of Gibraltar

6 CONVENT PLACE

OFFICIAL NOTICE

HM Customs would like to remind the general public that the importation of fireworks and other pyrotechnics is prohibited except where imported under, and in accordance with the conditions of, a licence granted by the Collector of Customs.

Importing prohibited items is a serious offence and conviction can lead to imprisonment for up to two years and fines of up to £5,000.00

Application for Import Licences may be obtained from:

The Collector of Customs
Custom House
Waterport

Such licences may be issued to bona fide entities importing pyrotechnics corresponding to British Safety Standard BS 7114 (or recognised equivalent).