

STATEMENT OF PARTICULARS

CROWN COUNSEL

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S CHAMBERS

Qualifications: The Crown Counsel must be a Barrister or Solicitor who is entitled to practice in Gibraltar who has relevant practical experience in litigation including crime, preferably for at least 5 years.

Knowledge of civil litigation, civil and public law matters and relevant legislation is an advantage.

Job Profile: The postholder must be able to work on his/her own or as part of a team with case management responsibilities. He/she must have advocacy skills and be prepared to take on cases before the Supreme Court of Gibraltar in addition to those in the Magistrates' Court. The postholder is also required to undertake civil litigation and provide general legal advice to Government Departments on a wide range of civil and public law matters.

Specifications of the Role:

The role will include the following, inter alia:

- Review, prepare and prosecute criminal cases both in the Magistrates' Court and Supreme Court of Gibraltar.
- Advise the Royal Gibraltar Police, HM Customs and other prosecuting authorities on pre-charging decisions, bail, evidence, legislation and procedures.
- To form part of a Magistrates' Court roster dealing with the Court's daily list.
- Review and prosecute matters set down for committal to the Supreme Court.
- Assist the Attorney General and/or Senior Crown Counsel (Ag) in criminal or civil cases in the Supreme Court and Court of Appeal.
- Advise on pre-litigation procedures and review, prepare and lead on disciplinary and Industrial Tribunal matters.

- Provide legal advice, guidance and assistance to the management of Government Departments, Public Authorities and Agencies.
- Represent any Government Department, Public Authority and/or Agency in the Magistrates' Court and Supreme Court.
- Undertake any other duties commensurate with the post as may be required by the Attorney General.

Person Specification:

The Crown Counsel must:

- Be able to demonstrate strong intellectual ability.
- Ensure efficiency and time management skills and that deadlines are met adequately.
- Possess excellent written, organisational and communication skills at all levels, interpersonal skills and advocacy.
- Display initiative.
- Deal with the general public in an appropriate manner at all times.
- Be able to approach and analyse a wide range of problems, and think on their feet whilst in Court.
- Understand the relevant laws in their social setting and foresee the consequences of changes to the law.
- Be able to work as part of a team, approach and analyse a wide range of problems.
- Be able to prioritise work, and to work under pressure.

It is preferred that the successful applicant should be:

- Bilingual in English and Spanish
- Computer literate.

Salary:

The salary scale for the post is £29,319; £34,657; £37,979; £44,176 £50,221 £60,133 £65,088; £70,000 starting salary will be commensurate with experience.