OFFICIAL NOTICE

NATIONAL DAY 2011

CHILDREN'S FANCY DRESS COMPETITION

This year the Fancy Dress Competition will be held by the Lobby of Parliament, Main Street, on Saturday 10 September 2011 and is open to everyone aged 15 and under.

Registration forms can be collected and handed back in when completed, from the Ministry of Culture, 310 Main Street, Monday to Friday between 8.30 a.m. and 2 p.m. They will be available as from today and until Friday 9th September 2011.

All those taking part are required to be there on the day by 10.30 am. Judging will commence at 11am.

All entries should display the red and white colours prominently if not exclusively. Originality of design, creativity and costume impact will form the criteria upon which the judges will select the three winners.

The three winning entries will each receive a trophy and gift vouchers.

For further information please contact the Ministry of Culture on telephone 200 75826, fax 200 47579 or e-mail: minculture@gibtelecom.net
