OFFICIAL NOTICE

2012 CENSUS

The 2012 Census of Gibraltar will take place on Monday 12 November. Enumerators will begin the delivery of the Census Forms to households on Wednesday 7 November. Everyone is required by law to take part in the Census by either completing a Census Form or by being included on one.

The information given on the Census Forms is protected by the confidentiality provisions of the Census Act and the Data Protection Act. The Census is used by the Government and other organisations for policy-making, planning for future education, housing, employment, health, transport and other needs and services.
