No. 22/2007

Date: 26/01/2007

The Gibraltar Tourist Board has expanded its Information Office at Watergate House in Casemates Square. The office has doubled in size and offers visitors a modern and comfortable office in which to learn all about Gibraltar's attractions. An additional information desk has been provided along with a courtesy table and chairs where visitors can sit and plan their itineraries.

Positioned at the main entry point into the City for visitors the office will now take over the role of the Gibraltar Tourist Board's main Information Office at Duke of Kent House which will now house the Board's administration offices only.

"Since 1996 the Gibraltar Tourist Board has expanded the Information Office facilities so that visitors have easy and efficient access to all they need to know about Gibraltar. The Gibraltar Tourist Board's Information Officers are trained to the highest levels of customer service and will go out of their way to ensure that all of Gibraltar's tourism products are promoted and made available to our visitors." said the Hon Joe Holliday, Deputy Chief Minister.

The extended office at Casemates is open from 9.00 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. Monday to Friday, 10.00 a.m. to 3.00 p.m. on Saturdays and 10.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m. on Sundays.
