PRESS RELEASE

No. 279/2010

Date: 2nd November 2010

Minister for justice in stable condition after unprovoked attack

The Minister for Justice, Daniel Feetham, is in a stable condition in hospital after surgery following an unprovoked attack in the street in which he was stabbed in the back with a long bladed knife.

The incident was witnessed by Mr Feetham's young children. The assailant is in custody at New Mole House Police Station following his apprehension and arrest in the area of the assault.

Mr Feetham's injuries were serious but he is now in a stable condition and there is no fear for his life.
