International Biomedical Science Conference

The 2nd International Biomedical Science 2-day Conference starts tomorrow at the O'Callaghan Hotel. The Conference will be opened by the Minister for Health, Yvette Del Agua.

There will be talks from the GHA's Chief Executive, the GHA's Executive Director responsible for the Pathology Department and two surgeons from the GHA. From abroad there will be 11 guest speakers from UK, Hong Kong, Morocco and Spain. Topics will include prostate cancer, anticoagulation practices, heart disease and prenatal diagnosis.

On Friday, a forum will discuss the delivery of pathological services from the different countries participating in the conference.

The conference is open to the general public.

Note to the Editors: There will be a photo opportunity at 9 am on Thursday at the start of the conference.
