Date: 9th May 2011

Government proceeds with final phase of Varyl Begg refurbishment

Following the completion of the re-roofing and external painting of all blocks and the installation of lifts at Varyl Begg Estate, the Government is now proceeding with the final phase of the Estate Refurbishment Scheme which is the complete landscaping around the estate. Internal decoration and painting work will be done in the remaining blocks.

The scheme will involve the complete repaving of the estate, resurfacing of roads and parking areas and the installation of a new ball playing area, children's playground areas and adult keep fit equipment, general beautification and green areas and enhanced entrances to the Estate.

Works are scheduled to commence during the next two or three weeks.
