PRESS RELEASE

No. 234/2012

Date: 11th April 2012

Next meeting of Parliament on 17 May

There will be no meeting of Parliament in April.

This is in line with the practice in the United Kingdom and elsewhere, where there is an Easter recess and follows a conversation between the Chief Minister and the Leader of the Opposition about not holding a meeting during the month of Easter or the month of August.

The next meeting of Parliament for questions will therefore be on Thursday 17th May.
