Three men arrested by HM Customs

Three men were arrested by HM Customs in two separate incidents over the weekend.

Two Spanish nationals, both resident in La Linea, were arrested after being found in possession of commercial quantities of cigarettes in the area of Eastern Beach. Both men have been released on bail. 4,000 cigarettes (20 cartons) and two Spanish registered motorcycles were seized by HM Customs during the incident.

In a separate matter, 26 year old David De Los RIOS Aguilar, was arrested by HM Customs as he entered Gibraltar on Friday. He was charged with obstructing a Customs Officer executing his statutory duty under the Imports and Exports Act. The incident occurred on April 9th.
