PRESS RELEASE

No. 267/2012

Date: 24th April 2012

Royal Gibraltar Regiment have done Gibraltar proud

The Government would like to thank and congratulate the Royal Gibraltar Regiment for the exemplary and professional manner in which they have conducted their public duties in London. They have done Gibraltar proud once again.

It is very significant that the Regiment was chosen to perform these duties not only during the Jubilee year of Her Majesty the Queen, but also on the very day of her actual birthday on Saturday.

This act alone speaks volumes for the strong and enduring bond between Her Majesty the Queen of Gibraltar and her subjects in Gibraltar.

The Government has been very pleased to support the events that have taken place and which continue in London this week with the presence of four Government Ministers in different functions.

The Royal Gibraltar Regiment, from the Commanding Officer, to the Officers and all the ranks deserve to be praised. The Regiment will continue to receive the unwavering support of the Government and the people of Gibraltar.
