PRESS RELEASE

No. 550/2012

Date: 3rd September 2012

DIAMOND JUBILEE POETRY COMPETITION

The Ministry of Culture, in conjunction with The Gibraltar Chronicle and The Department of Education & Training, will hold a Poetry Competition as part of the 2012 autumn programme.

The competition is open to Gibraltarians and residents of Gibraltar who may submit two original works related to the Queen's Diamond Jubilee. Entries can be in the form of discussing any aspect of the monarchy or focused on the Jubilee celebrations.

The winning entry will receive the Ministry of Culture Prize of £300 and a trophy.

There will also be three categories based on school years (or College equivalent) as follows:

- A. Years 4 to 7
- B. Years 8 to 11
- C. Years 12 and 13

The winner of each category will receive a £50 voucher and a pen, kindly sponsored by The Gibraltar Chronicle, and a trophy donated by the Ministry of Culture. All winning entries will be printed in the Gibraltar Chronicle.

Entry forms and full conditions are available from:

Schools and Gibraltar College of Further Education
The Department of Education, 23 Queensway
The Ministry of Culture, 310 Main Street or e-mail: culture.info@culture.gov.gi

Entries must reach the Ministry of Culture by Friday 12th October 2012
