PRESS RELEASE

No. 788 /2012

Date: 28th November 2012

Excavation works on Flat Bastion Road

Excavation works will be undertaken to lay utilities and resurface the southern end section of Flat Bastion Road. These works will begin on Saturday 1st December 2012 as from 9.00am, until no later than 6.00am on Monday 3rd December 2012. Works will then resume over the following weekend on Saturday 8th December 2012 at 9:00am until 12:00 noon on Monday 10 December 2012, when the resurfacing will be completed.

During these times, the following traffic diversions will be in place:

- Flat Bastion Road will be closed to all vehicular traffic along its southern section.
- Access into Flat Bastion Road will be controlled with the use of temporary traffic lights for residents only during this period.

Temporary road works and diversion signs will be placed strategically to inform drivers of the works ahead.

The Government would like to take this opportunity to apologise to the general public for any inconvenience that these works may cause to them.
