PRESS RELEASE

No: 814/2012

Date: 10th December 2012

Government puts housing project out to tender

The first of the Government's new housing projects has gone out to tender today. This is for approximately 450 flats on the aerial farm site.

This project already went to the Development and Planning Commission for guidance and advice in September.

This is part of the Government's manifesto commitment to deliver housing for our people.

The closing date for the tender in March 2013.
