GIBRALTAR MAY DAY CELEBRATIONS

Wednesday 1st May 2013

The Ministry of Culture is pleased to announce that this year's May Day festivities will be being organised by the Gibraltar Trades Council.

The Ministry will be collaborating with the Unions and will provide assistance to ensure the smooth running of all events. The event this year will once again be held at Casemates Square and will include an all day event with a Fun Day for kids and live performances.

A full programme of activities will be announced in due course.
