GPA WEBSITE MOBILE PHONE VERSION LAUNCHED

Following on from the successful launch of the Gibraltar Port Authority's new website in October 2012, a new mobile-optimised version of the Port's website has been developed by Piranha Designs Gibraltar and is now available to use from today.

The mobile phone version allows access to the full website facilities that users currently enjoy but now in a more user-friendly format on all smartphones (Android, iPhone, Blackberry, Windows Phone), providing a more convenient and easy-to-read alternative for those who might be on the move with a simple top-level menu which gives quick and easy access to the different areas of the website.

The mobile site is available from a smartphone at <http://www.gibraltarport.com>

The Minister for Tourism, Commercial Affairs, Public Transport and the Port, the Hon Neil Costa MP said "I am delighted that we are now able to offer access to our website using a mobile version, which I am sure users will find most useful. We continue to look at ways of enhancing our communications and this is just one more way to bring instant information to the general public, business partners and clients."
