Date: 20th May 2013

GIBRALTAR INTERNATIONALS

Her Majesty's Government of Gibraltar has launched a website which will serve as a directory of "Gibraltar Internationals" (GIs) - a network of Gibraltarians and Gibraltarian professionals across the globe who could be called upon to provide services to the Government and to Gibraltar as and when required.

The Government is aware that there are hundreds of Gibraltarians living abroad and would like these persons to register themselves on the website.

Similarly, Gibraltar-based professionals may submit their details to the site and join the network of GIs.

Anyone in Gibraltar who has relatives or friends living abroad, who they think may be interested in submitting their details to this web-based directory, is asked to contact those GIs and make them aware of this initiative.

The website address is www.gibraltarinternationals.gi.

The site has been launched in a BETA version for a short period of time and will be launched in its final version once we are satisfied that the site is fully functional and any anomalies have been addressed.

Concurrently with the launch of the website, Gibraltar Internationals has launched a Facebook page and a Twitter account.

"I am delighted to announce the launch of the Gibraltar Internationals website," said the Chief Minister, the Hon Fabian Picardo MP. "This is an initiative that will bring together the vast amount of Gibraltar talent that exists across the globe and encourage these professionals to use each other's services. The Government, too, will make use of the services of such Gibraltarians and Gibraltarian professionals whenever services are required in any country where there is a Gibraltarian able to assist.
