MINISTER ATTENDS ICELANDIC EXHIBITION

The Minister for Culture, the Hon Steven Linares, recently travelled to Reykjavik, Iceland, to attend the opening of an exhibition by the organisation 'Little Constellation,' of which Gibraltar is now a member. The exhibition attracted over 700 visitors in its first two days.

The Minister was accompanied by Chief Culture Officer, Yvette Zarb-Bensusan and Gino Sanguinetti, Manager of the Fine Arts Gallery, who delivered a talk at the artists' workshops which took place over the same weekend.

Gibraltarian artist Nina Danino, one of the exhibiting artists at the exhibition, also delivered a talk.

Having had the chance to meet the San Marino Minister, Matteo Fiorini, Minister Linares was interviewed for San Marino TV. The Minister also met dignitaries from other small states taking part.

The Ministry of Culture is now working on the possibility of bringing a Little Constellation exhibition/project to Gibraltar in 2014.
