Minister Linares sends messages of Congratulations

The Minister for Sports, the Hon Steven Linares has sent his sincere congratulations to the President of the Med Rowing Club. The club participated in the British Rowing Championships held in Nottingham last weekend. They all achieved outstanding results, namely Jessie Borg and Colin Tester who won gold and their coach, Stuart Bensadon.

As Minister for Culture, the Hon Minister has also sent his heartfelt congratulations to Julian Felices and his team for their success in the Best Play category at the Duncan Rand Youth One-Act Play Festival in Rochester with their plays "Going Under" and "Flavius", an original play by Julian Felices and winner of the 2013 Gibraltar Drama Festival.
