THE MISS WORLD APP

The Miss World Organisation has recently launched its Miss World App and is available at the iStore for Apple products.

Voting for your favourite contestant is new for this year. When you purchase the App you will receive two votes to cast on this year's contestants, with the contestant gathering the most votes receiving the People's Choice Awards and gaining automatic entry into the Miss World Final to be held on the 28th September in Jakarta, Indonesia.

Miss Gibraltar 2013, Maroua Kharbouch, is currently placed 3rd out of the 131 contestants and the Miss Gibraltar Office is inviting the general public to download the App, cast their votes and hopefully, this will favour Miss Gibraltar's chances in winning the award.
