Minister Isola in London for series of financial services- and gaming-related meetings

The Minister with responsibility for Financial Services and Gaming, the Hon. Albert Isola MP, has been in London this week conducting a series of meetings related to financial services and gaming. The Minister, who was accompanied by Finance Centre Director James Tipping, Gibraltar Finance Senior Executive Michael Ashton and Gambling Regulator Phill Brear, held talks with, amongst others, Her Majesty's Government officials at HM Treasury and the Foreign and Commonwealth Office as well as key private sector players covering a broad range of issues relating to the relevant sectors of his Ministerial portfolio.
