Chief Minister congratulates Nathan Stagno

The Chief Minister has sent his congratulations to Nathan Stagno who umpired Sunday's Hockey World Cup final between Australia and the Netherlands at The Hague.

'Nathan is clearly respected by the world's best international teams and officials and he has reached the very pinnacle of a sport that is played throughout the world. Indeed, Sunday's final was watched by millions of people around the globe and, as a consequence, Nathan has brought great credit and distinction to Gibraltar. We should all be very proud of him.'
