PRESS RELEASE

No: 411/2014

Date: 4th August 2014

Government represented at World War One commemoration in Glasgow

The Minister for Culture Steven Linares represented the Government at the World War One commemorations which took place in Glasgow today.

The events were led by the Prince of Wales and the Prime Minister David Cameron and included many representatives of Commonwealth countries and the Overseas Territories.

A Church service took place at St Mungo's Cathedral in Glasgow. This was followed by a ceremony at the cenotaph where wreaths were laid by the Prince of Wales and Commonwealth leaders.

After the ceremony, The Lord Provost of Glasgow councillor Sadie Doherty and Glasgow City Council invited dignitaries to a lunch at the City Chambers Glasgow.

Mr Linares, who was in Glasgow for the Commonwealth Games, returns to Gibraltar tomorrow.
