Government moves to support Natwest employees affected by cuts

HM Government of Gibraltar has offered its support to those employees of RBSI/Natwest who are to be made redundant following the recent announcement of cuts across the branches of Natwest in different jurisdictions.

Minister for Financial Services Albert Isola met with senior management of Natwest last week who were grateful for the support and have agreed to engage with the Liaison Department of the Ministry to offer their assistance in finding alternative employment for those employees affected within the private sector. Mr Michael Crome, the Industrial Relations adviser to the Chief Minister, will be working closely with the Liaison Department to coordinate the Government's engagement.

Arrangements are being made this week with the HR Team at Natwest to facilitate this process and to offer assistance and support to those employees seeking re employment.
