PRESS RELEASE

No: 480/2014

Date: 12th September 2014

Minister Isola to head Financial Services delegation to Geneva

The Hon. Albert Isola, Minister with responsibility for Financial Services, will be leading a delegation comprising of members of the Gibraltar Funds & Investments Association (GFIA) and other financial services professionals to Geneva next week.

Minister Isola will be hosting a Gibraltar Day in Geneva financial services lunch on Tuesday, 16th September for over 150 professionals during which he will address the invitees.

Minister Isola will also be the guest of honour at a dinner hosted by Bernard Droux, Managing Partner of Lombard Odier on the 15th September for guests of the Bank, which include Gibraltar firms attending the Invest 14 Forum.

Gibraltar Finance together with GFIA will be attending and exhibiting at the Invest'14 Forum on the 17th and 18th September at which Minister Isola will be making a keynote address on, "Gibraltar: The European Union jurisdiction of choice".

During this visit, Gibraltar Finance senior executive, Philip Canessa, will accompany the Minister.

Minister Isola commented, "Invest'14 is an important event for us to reinforce our message to the Swiss funds and asset management industry and serves as an excellent follow up to the very successful visit by fifty Swiss financial services professionals to Gibraltar in April this year. We need to continue to raise our profile and engage professionals at every opportunity hand in hand with the private sector."
