Gibraltar Government at UK Liberal Democrat conference

The Deputy Chief Minister Dr Joseph Garcia leaves for Glasgow this weekend in order to attend the Liberal Democrat party conference. He will be accompanied by the Minister for Tourism Neil Costa and the Minister for Culture Steven Linares.

There will be a Gibraltar Government reception on Sunday evening, and the opportunity to discuss Gibraltar issues with members of the UK Government, MPs and others.

Dr Garcia will leave Glasgow for London on Tuesday where he will join the Chief Minister and the Gibraltar delegation bound for the United Nations in New York.

Ministers Costa and Linares will remain in Glasgow in order to attend the event for international delegates which will take place on Wednesday night.
