James Arthur First Artist for Gibraltar Music Festival

James Arthur is the first act to be announced for the Gibraltar Music Festival 2014.

Having won the X-Factor in 2012 in dramatic style he went on to release the global hit 'Impossible' as a charity single for Together for Short Lives, a charity close to James' heart. The single sold over 2.5 million copies worldwide and was number one for 3 weeks in the UK as well as many other countries. On November 4th 2013 James released his first album reaching an impressive second spot in the album charts.

Further artists, including the headline act for the 2014 edition of the festival are due to be announced on 28th February 2014 with tickets on sale from 1st March 2014.
