PRESS RELEASE

No: 614/2014

Date: 10th November 2014

YOUTH SERVICE MID-TERM PROGRAMME

Service users from all four youth clubs have had a week of fun filled opportunities during the mid-term school break.

The events started with a trip to Isla Magica in Seville, where the youth service staff and a Royal Gibraltar Police officer accompanied a group of 30 young people to enjoy a full day at the popular theme park.

Meanwhile, Dolphins Youth club took part in a quiz event held in town and they hosted an inter-youth club football tournament with prizes presented to the winning teams and the best sportsman.

Members of Plater Youth Club went on a tour of the RGP's Headquarters in New Mole House and enjoyed a ride on the police boat.

Both the Youth Centre and Laguna Youth Club users went bowling at Kings Bastion Leisure Centre and were involved in a Halloween events at their respective premises. The event held at the Youth Centre included food, music and a sleepover.

The youth service is always looking at educational and fun opportunities for young people to be involved in. For further information please email us at gibyouth@gibtelecom.net.
