Opposition should not be so hypocritical

The Opposition fail to understand that when they ask a question in Parliament, the answer that will be given to them is to the question that has been asked. They should not sound so hypocritical because this is the same policy that they adopted when they were in Government.

The answer is therefore very simple and it has already been explained. The GFA will repay the Government the sum in question. This has been lent and not paid. The sum of £104 has been paid. That is the end of the story.
