No. 504/2015

Date: 14th July 2015

MISS GIBRALTAR 2015

Gibraltar Cultural Services, on behalf of the Ministry of Culture, have launched a revamped website for the Miss Gibraltar Office (www.missgibraltar.gi) keeping in line with the Government's manifesto commitment to provide a friendly E-Government service. The website will support as much interaction as possible between the community and the department and will also keep in line with technological advancements.

The website includes all aspects of Miss Gibraltar's duties and functions that are run by Gibraltar Cultural Services for Her Majesty's Government of Gibraltar. The website includes a Home Page with user friendly icons, information and gallery for the reigning Miss Gibraltar and information and gallery for the Miss World Pageant. Additionally, the website includes a past winners page and a special 'did you know' page with anecdotes on the history of the pageant.

Following the launch of the new website, The Minister for Sports, Culture, Heritage & Youth, the Hon Steven Linares, also presented cheques to the value of £7,000 in respect of the prize money awarded to the winners of the Miss Gibraltar Pageant.

The Minister presented a £4,500 cheque to Miss Gibraltar 2015 Hannah Bado. Cheques were also presented to 1st Princesses, Bianca Pisharello, for £1,500 and 2nd Princess, Natalia Nunez, for £1,000.

The Minister for Culture, The Hon Steven Linares, said:

'The website is now a reality. It will make it easier for Gibraltar citizens to follow the Miss Gibraltar Pageant and the journey of our successful winners. The website is in line with Government's E-policy and I am certain it shall be a great communication tool for all.

I take this opportunity to wish Miss Gibraltar and her two Princesses all the very best in their year ahead.'

The Miss Gibraltar Office invites the general public to visit the Miss Gibraltar webpage on: www.missgibraltar.gi
