Date: 29th September 2015

Minister Bossano meets with Jeremy Corbyn

As well as hosting the Gibraltar Government Reception, Joe Bossano has had the opportunity of participating in some of the activities at the Labour conference.

As part of the South West Region European Parliament Constituency he addressed their reception which was then followed by an address from Labour Party Leader, Jeremy Corbyn.

Following this Joe had the opportunity of talking to Jeremy about matters of mutual interest.

Joe was also invited to address a Northern Ireland meeting which dealt with the issue of the UK referendum on whether the UK would remain in the European Union.

The Northern Ireland meeting was opened by the Shadow Secretary of State for Northern Ireland, Vernon Coaker, and all the political parties with a presence in Northern Ireland were represented.

Press Release issued by Minister Bossano at The Labour Party Conference in Brighton.
