Chief Minister to Attend Joint Ministerial Council

The Chief Minister left Gibraltar this afternoon in order to attend the fourth meeting of the Overseas Territories Joint Ministerial Council (JMC) at Lancaster House in London. The JMC will be hosted by the FCO Minister for the Overseas Territories, James Duddridge MP.

Before Mr Picardo's return to Gibraltar on Thursday evening, he will hold meetings with the Minister of State for Europe, the Rt Hon David Lidington MP.

While the Chief Minister is away from the Rock, the Hon Dr Joseph Garcia MP will be the Acting Chief Minister.

Note to Editors:

The House of Commons debate on Syria may interfere with the timings of the JMC and of CM's meeting with the Minister for Europe.
