New Year's Classical Concert

Gibraltar Cultural Services on behalf of the Ministry of Culture is pleased to announce the return of the New Year's Classical Concerts for 2016 as part of its cultural events calendar. The events will be organised for HM Government of Gibraltar by the Gibraltar Philharmonic Society.

The Society will be organising two New Year's Concerts featuring The European Sinfonietta, conducted by Wouter Padberg, at the John Mackintosh Hall Theatre on Monday 4th January 2016. The first one will be an Orchestral Concert for children at 5.30pm, followed by an adult concert at 8.30pm.

The Minister for Sports, Culture, Heritage and Youth, the Hon Steven Linares said, 'We are very proud that this Government reintroduced the New Year's Classical Concert into our cultural calendar in January 2015 and happy that we can once again sponsor it in 2016, particularly the children's concert. We have been working very closely with the Gibraltar Philharmonic Society and sincerely thank them for making it all happen.'

Tickets for the Orchestral Concert for children, priced at £7 per child and £10 per adult, can be purchased from the John Mackintosh Hall reception as from Monday 7th December 2015. A family ticket priced at £30 will also be available either for two adults and two children or one adult and three children.

Tickets for the evening's performance, priced at £20 will go on sale as from Monday 7th December and will be available from Sacarello's Coffee Shop in Irish Town, the Silver Shop at 222 Main Street or from the Society by telephone on 200 72134 or www.philharmonic.gi. A limited number of tickets priced at £10 for Senior Citizens and Students will be available from the John Mackintosh Hall reception at 308 Main Street.
