PRESS RELEASE

No. 300/2015

Date: 11th May 2015

2015 Gibraltar Museum Open Day

The annual open day of the Gibraltar Museum will be held on Saturday 23 May from 10:00 to 18:00. The day is aimed to coincide as closely as possible with International Museum Day (18th May) and this year's theme is "Museums for a sustainable society".

International Museums' Day has been celebrated in Gibraltar since 2002 in the form of an open day which continues to increase in popularity within the local community. The day promises to be fun-filled with plenty of activities, primarily aimed at young people, but also for the young at heart!

The staff at the Gibraltar Museum will be at hand to show the work that the museum undertakes and, as in previous years, there will be a range of hands-on activities. Among the activities will be a fancy dress competition; the theme for this year will be "Going Green" and is open to interpretation and the imagination!

The Gibraltar National Archives has once again joined with the museum to show some early films of Gibraltar.

So come and join us at the Gibraltar Museum on Saturday 23rd May between 10:00 and 18:00. It promises to be a fun day for the whole family.

Entrance is free.
