Gibraltar Archivist Speaks At Oxford Conference

Last week, the Gibraltar Government Archivist, Anthony Pitaluga, spoke at the Preservation 2016 Global User Group Conference at Oxford University.

This annual conference includes delegates from UK, the Irish and Scottish National Archives, NATO, the European Commission, the Swiss and Dutch National Archives, the UK Met Office and others. Delegates from the private sector included representatives from HSBC and the 'Bill and Melinda Gates Private Archives'.

Anthony Pitaluga gave a presentation on the Gibraltar National Archive's digitisation and digital preservation project, a presentation which generated many useful questions and a positive discussion.
