STEP Leeds: First Private Client Conference in 2016 for Gibraltar Finance

Gibraltar Finance is sponsoring STEP 2016, in Leeds on Thursday 28th April. Paul Astengo, Senior Executive will lead a Gibraltar delegation which will include members of STEP (Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners) Gibraltar.

The one-day conference provides essential guidance on the current and future developments in tax, trust and estates and will be held at the Hilton Leeds City, Neville Street, Leeds LS1 4BX. Topics under discussion include Tax Update, Current Will Drafting Problems, Estate Administration Issues, The Inheritance Act 1975, Trustees and the Family Business and Acting for the Older Client.

Albert Isola, Minister for Financial Services commented, "Since being elected in 2011 HM Government of Gibraltar has worked very closely with STEP, Gibraltar and delivered a long outstanding wish list of new and refreshed private client legislation that is of particular relevance to its members and our professional community. This conference provides an excellent platform for us to continue to promote awareness of this important advancement. I am particularly pleased that this event also marks the start of a comprehensive UK regional visit programme for 2016".
