The 'General' Returns to Service

The Gibraltar Port Authority (GPA) is pleased to announce the return to service of its port launch, GENERAL ELLIOT II after an extensive refit undertaken by MH Bland.

The CEO and Captain of the Port, Commodore Sanguinetti, commented that: 'This represents a significant enhancement in our ability to patrol our busy waters, discharging our responsibilities in safety of navigation, search and rescue, environmental protection and supporting other government departments and agencies'.

Minister for the Port, the Hon Paul Balban, said: 'This project reinforces this Government's commitment to our thriving port, a key pillar of Gibraltar's economy, and highlights the strength of the GPA's relationship and partnership with the wider port community'.
