HM Customs seize 30kgs of cannabis and high powered RHIB

The Marine Unit and Outfield Officers of HM Customs have been busy over the weekend.

On Saturday afternoon, HM Seeker engaged in a chase with a Spanish jet-ski off the east side, forcing it to jettison one bale of cannabis, weighing approximately 30 kilos. The drugs have a street value of £150,000. The jet-ski made good it's escape into Spain.

In a separate incident during the early hours of Monday 4th, a high-powered RHIB grounded at Catalan Bay, after being involved in a chase with the Spanish SVA. HM Customs seized the vessel, but despite an intensive search of the area were unable to locate the crew.
