HM Customs Seize Cannabis, Cocaine & Ecstasy

Officers of HM Customs Enforcement have arrested a local 35 year old male at the Land frontier when he was found in possession of 4 grams of cannabis and user amounts of cocaine and MDMA, commonly known as Ecstasy. This is a particularly dangerous class A drug which is known to have numerous side effects, including seizures and permanent brain damage.

The offender was stopped in the early hours of Saturday the 15th October as he arrived from Spain on foot. He was searched by Officers and the cocktail of drugs were found within his clothing.

He was arrested and has now been bailed out to the 23rd January.
