HM Customs Arrests over National Day Weekend

HM Customs continued its fight against drug smuggling over the weekend when officers of the Flexible Anti-Smuggling Team arrested two local males for the importation of approximately 200 grams of cannabis resin.

The men were stopped at approximately 8pm on Friday evening as they drove into Gibraltar in a locally registered vehicle. Officers searched the vehicle with specialist drug itemiser detectors. A full body search carried out on the two men produced two packages of cannabis resin. The total weight of cannabis resin seized is estimated to be approximately 200grams, with a street value of approximately £350.

The two men have been released on police bail until December 2017.
