GIBRALTAR, 1st March 2017:

Forget the winter blues!

We are excited to announce the first headliners; Clean Bandit, Craig David and Steve Aoki will all be performing at MTV Presents Gibraltar Calling, an outdoor live music spectacular to be staged on the famous Rock, on the 2nd and 3rd September this year. Put the dates in your diary, you do not want to miss this ...

MTV favourites Clean Bandit, Craig David and Steve Aoki will be performing on the Main Stage across the weekend, whilst Bananarama, Midge Ure and Village People will have you dancing the day and night away on the Classic Stage. Keep your eyes peeled for future announcements.

Formerly known as the Gibraltar Music Festival, tickets for MTV Presents Gibraltar Calling will go on sale today (Wednesday 1st March 2017).

Tickets will be available via the website www.gibraltarcalling.com and from the Gibraltar Ministry of Culture. The Early Bird hard tickets will be sold from the reception at City Hall, John Mackintosh Square, Gibraltar. These tickets will be sold from Monday to Friday between 10:00 and 17:00.

Children aged 12 and under are eligible for a free ticket as long as they are accompanied by a ticket-holding adult. These must be obtained in advance from City Hall.

MTV Presents Gibraltar Calling continues MTV's long history of partnering with tourist boards and councils to promote cities and regions to youth audiences and is the brand's first-ever partnership with HM Government of Gibraltar. Recent stand out MTV live music collaborations include MTV Crashes, Club MTV and not forgetting the flagship MTV European Music Awards which last year took place in Rotterdam.

The Minister of Culture, the Hon Steven Linares, said: "I'm really pleased to see how our Partnership with MTV is developing. The Gibraltar Calling festival will continue the success it has had over the past 5 years and will now be exposed to the whole world. I'm sure that the people of Gibraltar will support this venture and will enjoy this World Class Event."
