PRESS RELEASE

No: 140/2017

Date: 9th March 2017

Exhibition Celebrating the History and Development of Fashion in Gibraltar

A major exhibition is being planned by Gibraltar Cultural Services on behalf of the Ministry of Culture. This exhibition will celebrate the history and development of fashion in Gibraltar.

Among the exhibits will be several pieces by the late Eduardo Viotto, widely considered Gibraltar's first successful fashion designer, and photographs kindly loaned for this occasion from private collections.

Any local designers with pieces that they would like to loan for the duration of the exhibition are welcome to come forward. These pieces must be original works and must be accompanied by sketches, mood boards, and other items that have contributed to the piece's final creation. These works will be reviewed by GCS and if selected, will form part of the final exhibition.

Persons interested should contact Gibraltar Cultural Services, events department on telephone: 20067236 or email: culture.info@culture.gov.gi, no later than Friday 31st March 2017.
