Minister for Sport backs Darts Players for Med Cup success

The Minister for Sport, the Hon Steven Linares, would like to wish all the participants and coaches of the Gibraltar Darts Association the best of luck during the upcoming World Darts Federation Mediterranean Cup XVII being held in Poissy, France from the 17th to 20th May. The travelling contingent will measure themselves against seven other nations including the likes of Turkey, Cyprus and Greece

Minister Linares said, "The Med Cup has traditionally been a happy hunting ground for our local Darts players. Hopefully, this will remain true this year and will make Gibraltar proud".
