THE TUNNEL AT ALAMEDA GARDENS – PAUL BUSH

The Minister for Education, Heritage, Environment, Energy and Climate Change, The Hon Prof. Dr John Cortes MP and the Minister for Culture, the Media, Youth & Sport, The Hon Steven Linares MP, have today visited the street art mural been produced by Paul Bush at the tunnel leading to the Alameda Gardens.

The work by Paul Bush, is inspired by his nostalgic sense of childhood wonder that is attached to the Botanical Gardens. The mural will encourage the viewer to engage with their imagination and curiosity, becoming an explorer, alike to that featured in the artwork. The composition reinterprets the landscape and the wildlife, with murals presented as a day and night scene.

The murals were selected from a number of entries by the Street Art Committee that includes representatives of both ministries as well as Town Planning and the Gibraltar Heritage Trust. Gibraltar Cultural Services, is coordinating the production of these street art murals on behalf of HM Government of Gibraltar.
