

HM Government of Gibraltar

Ministry of Tourism, Employment,
Commercial Aviation and the Port

PRESS RELEASE

No: 656/2018

Date: 25th October 2018

Jan Ravens and Julio Alberto for the Literary Festival

Jan Ravens will be joining Sheila Hancock, Robert Daws and Felix Francis for the Just A Minute panel, chaired by Nicholas Parsons, at the Gibunco Gibraltar International Literary Festival.

Jan Ravens is new to the Festival. Jan is the long running star of BBC's DEAD RINGERS and latest panellist on ITV's THE IMITATION GAME. Theresa May, Diane Abbott, Kirsty Wark, Fiona Bruce and Hillary Clinton are among some of her most popular impressions. She is a regular contributor across Radio 4 on programmes such as I'M SORRY I HAVEN'T A CLUE and JUST A MINUTE.

Alongside her work on screen and radio, Jan achieved rave reviews and broke box office records with her solo debut show 'Difficult Woman.' Throughout 2018 Jan has toured with the legendary Rory Bremner. This year The Observer called Jan Ravens "The perfect mimic for our times".

Participating in the Festival for the first time will be Julio Alberto Moreno Casas, known as Julio Alberto, a Spanish retired footballer who played as a left back.

During his professional career he played mainly for Atlético Madrid and Barcelona, amassing La Liga totals of 269 games and 11 goals. Julio Alberto will be talking to Guillem Balague about his life and presenting his book "Nunca recordaré haber muerto" co-written with Consuelo Garcia Del Cid Guerra.

The book is an intimate account of this football legend's journey from his unstructured childhood and an example of how to win and achieve goals. The book tells the story of his infancy, adolescence and his younger days coupled with early success in the world of football. It contains reflections on his bonhomie and his eternal support for those less favoured. It recognises his mistakes and he analyses these in detail. It looks at his view of the world currently and his constant fight with adversity, having pushed beyond most limits. The book also looks at his time as a player and his subsequent work with FCB along with a list of personalities whom he has known and are relevant to his story, who give opinions about the player, all agreeing on his human values that prevail in every situation.

Tickets for the Festival are on sale at www.gibraltarliteraryfestival.com or www.buytickets.gi. A box office is also open at The Gibraltar Garrison Library from 10.00 am until 4.00 pm Monday to Friday.

Ministry of Tourism, Employment, Commercial Aviation and the Port

HM Government of Gibraltar • Suite 771, Europort • Gibraltar GX11 1AA

t +350 20052557 (Centrex 3223) f +350 20047677 e mtecap@gibraltar.gov.gi w gibraltar.gov.gi

Follow the Festival on:

- Facebook - <https://www.facebook.com/gibraltarliteraryfestival>
- Instagram - <https://www.instagram.com/gibraltarliteraryfestival>
- Twitter - <https://twitter.com/gibraltarlitfes>